

Long-Form Notice of Settlement Approval Hearing

Did you attend school in Resolute Bay or Clyde River between April 1, 1969 and July 30, 1981?

A proposed settlement may affect you. Please read this notice carefully.

The Nunavut Court of Justice (the “Court”) approved this notice. This is not a solicitation from a lawyer.

A lawsuit was certified as a class action on behalf of people who were subjected to sexual abuse while attending Nunavut schools in Resolute Bay or Clyde River between April 1, 1969 and July 30, 1981 and who were sexually abused by teacher Maurice Cloughley. Sexual abuse includes:

- Sexually assaulted by Cloughley;
- Forced to touch Cloughley in a sexual manner;
- Forced to touch other children in a sexual manner;
- Forced to have their picture taken while nude; or
- Some combination of these forms of sexual exploitation.

The Court certified the class action, appointed RPC1 and RPC2 as Representative Plaintiffs and appointed the law firm of Morris Moore of Mount Pearl, Newfoundland and Labrador and Cooper Regel of Sherwood Park, Alberta as Class Counsel.

The Representative Plaintiffs and the Territory of Nunavut have agreed to settle this class action. If the Court approves the settlement, the Territory will pay $8,000,000.00 to establish a settlement fund to compensate class members, pay Class Counsel’s legal fees and disbursements, and pay for the administration of the settlement. Class Counsel are asking the Court to approve fees of $2,000,000.00, plus tax, disbursements to date of $95,014.17, plus tax, and $15,000.00 honoraria for each of the Representative Plaintiffs.

The settlement funds will be divided between class members on the basis of their injuries, subject to a $200,000.00 cap on any class member’s claim.

The Court must approve the proposed settlement before there is any money or any other benefit available. If the settlement is approved by the Court, class members will give up their rights to sue the Territory for sexual abuse by Cloughley they experienced while attending a school. If you are eligible for compensation, your legal rights will be affected even if you do nothing.

You have three options:

- 1. Object in writing: Write to the Claims Administrator at the address below if you do not like the proposed settlement or the lawyers’ fees and disbursements and you do not want them to be approved by the Court. The Claims Administrator must receive your written objection postmarked no later than June 4, 2024.
- 2. Object in writing and in person: You do not need to attend Court. However, your written objection may indicate that you would like to address the Court at the hearing of the application to approve the settlement. The hearing will take place June 4, 2024 at the Nunavut Court of Justice in Iqaluit.

This is the hearing date, and you will be required to provide any evidence and make your arguments and submissions on those days.

- 3. Do Nothing: Give up any right you have to object to the proposed settlement. By doing nothing, your rights to bring your own lawsuit are extinguished and cannot be revived.

If the settlement agreement is approved, you will have to comply with its terms to claim compensation. If the settlement agreement is not approved, no one will get any benefits under the settlement.

This notice explains your rights and options and how to exercise them.

BASIC INFORMATION

Why did I get notice of this proposed settlement?

The Court approved this notice to let you know about the proposed settlement and your options before the Court decides whether to approve the settlement.

What is a class action?

In a class action, one or more people called “Plaintiffs” or “Representative Plaintiffs” sue on behalf of people who have similar claims. All of those people are called a “Class” or “Class Members”. The courts resolve the issues for everyone affected.

The Representative Plaintiffs in this case are RPC1, RPC2, and RPC3. The lawyers for the Class (“Class Counsel”) are Morris Moore of Mount Pearl, Newfoundland and Labrador and Cooper Regel of Sherwood Park, Alberta. The Representative Plaintiffs are identified by pseudonyms, but you can contact them by writing to the Claims Administrator at the address below.

The Commissioner of the Territory of Nunavut and the Commissioner of the Territory of the Northwest Territories are the Defendants in the class action.

What is the class action about?

The Representative Plaintiffs allege that the Territory was responsible for sexual abuse of students in the institutions at the hands of Maurice Cloughley. Sexual abuse may include:

- Having been sexually assaulted by Cloughley;
- Having been forced to touch Cloughley in a sexual manner;
- Having been forced to touch other children in a sexual manner;
- Having been forced to have their picture taken while nude; or
- Some combination of these forms of sexual exploitation.

Why is there a proposed settlement?

The Representative Plaintiffs and the Territory have agreed to a proposed settlement. By agreeing to a proposed settlement, the parties avoid the costs and uncertainties of a trial and delays in obtaining judgment, and Class Members receive the benefits described in this notice (if the Court approves the proposed settlement).

The Representative Plaintiffs and their lawyers believe that the proposed settlement is in the best interests of all Class Members.

WHO IS INCLUDED IN THE PROPOSED SETTLEMENT?

Which individuals are included?

Individuals are included in the Class if:

1. they attended a school in Resolute Bay or Clyde River between April 1, 1969 and July 30, 1981;
2. they experienced sexual abuse at the hands of or facilitated by Maurice Cloughley while attending the schools; sexual abuse includes:
 - a. sexual assault by Cloughley;
 - b. being forced to touch Cloughley in a sexual manner;
 - c. being forced to touch other children in a sexual manner;
 - d. being forced to have their picture taken while nude; or
 - e. some combination of these forms of sexual exploitation.
3. they have not already sued and received compensation;
4. for residents of Nunavut, they have not opted out of the class action; and
5. for non-residents of Nunavut, they opted into the class action.

WHAT ARE THE BENEFITS OF THE SETTLEMENT?

What compensation will be paid under the proposed settlement if the Court approves it?

If the Court approves the settlement, the Territory will pay $8,000,000.00 to establish a settlement fund to compensate Class Members, pay Class Counsel’s legal fees and disbursements, and pay for the administration of the settlement. Class Counsel are asking the Court to approve fees of $2,000,000.00, plus tax, disbursements to date of $95,014.17 plus tax, and $15,000.00 honoraria for each of the Representative Plaintiffs.

The settlement funds will be divided between Class Members on the basis of their injuries, subject to a $200,000.00 cap on any Class Member’s claim.

When will individuals receive compensation?

Nothing will be paid unless the Court approves the proposed settlement. Payment will be made to individuals one year after the settlement approval order becomes final.

How will individuals receive compensation?

Individuals eligible for compensation must submit their claims to the Claims Administrator to receive payment. No claim forms will be available until the Court approves the proposed settlement.

Individuals do not need to testify in front of a court to receive compensation. Individuals will have to attest, under penalty of perjury, that they were subjected to sexual abuse during the class period. To be eligible for more money, individuals will have to describe in writing the sexual abuse they were subjected to and the effect it had on them. For the most serious sexual abuse, individuals may be interviewed about their experiences.

How will the lawyers be paid?

The lawyers for the Class will be paid out of the settlement fund. The lawyers will not be paid until the Court decides that the fees requested are fair and reasonable. The Court will decide how much the lawyers should be paid.

What am I giving up in the proposed settlement?

If the Court approves the settlement, you will give up your right to sue the Territory for the claims resolved by the proposed settlement.

Can I remove myself from the proposed settlement?

No. If you do not like the settlement, you must object before it is approved. If it is approved, you will not be able to remove yourself from the settlement even if you do not like it.

When and where will the Court decide whether to approve the proposed settlement?

The court will hold a hearing on June 4, 2024. You may attend in person at the Nunavut Court of Justice in Iqaluit

Do I have to attend court to object?

No. If you send an objection to the Claims Administrator, you do not have to talk about it in court. The Court will consider objections received in time even if you do not attend the hearing. You or your lawyer may attend in person at the hearing of the settlement approval application.

May I speak at the hearing?

You may ask the Court for permission to speak at the hearing of the settlement approval application. To do so, you must give the Claims Administrator notice of your objection and indicate you wish to speak to the Court. The application to approve the settlement agreement will be heard on June 4, 2024.

What if I do nothing?

Individuals who are eligible to participate in the proposed settlement who do nothing will be bound by the settlement if the Court approves it. Those individuals will be eligible for compensation, but they will give up their right to object to the settlement.
